1. General Introduction

The University of Jaffna was first established in 1974 as Jaffna Campus of the University of Ceylon with two faculties: Faculty of Science and Faculty of Arts. In 1979 with the implementation of University Act No 16 of 1978, Jaffna Campus had become an independent and autonomous university, namely, the University of Jaffna. At present, the University of Jaffna has expanded its activities with eight faculties and a Campus in Vavuniya with two faculties.

The history of Vavuniya Campus as a seat of learning goes back to 1991, as it was formed by elevating the status of the Northern Province Affiliated University College (NPAUC). The Vavuniya Campus of the University of Jaffna was established on 1st April 1997 by an order made under Section 22 of the Universities Act No. 16 of 1978 with two faculties, namely, the Faculties of Business Studies and Applied Science. The two batches of students who had completed two years of Diploma courses in NPAUC were admitted for degree programs and awarded three-year degrees in Bachelor of Finance (BAF), Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA) and Bachelor of Science (BSc). The first batches of students were admitted to both the faculties in October 1998. Now both the faculties offer six special degree programs of four-year duration with an optional exit point in the third year.

The permanent site of Vavuniya Campus is about ten kilometres away from Vavuniya town in the Vavuniya- Mannar road at Sopalapuliyankulam, Pampaimadu. One hundred and sixty (160) acres of land was acquired and reserved for the development of academic, administrative and residential buildings. The development of infrastructure had been commenced since 2006 and still on process. The construction of four residential hostels, to accommodate about nine hundred students, was completed.

The Faculty was shifted from its temporary location in the Vavuniya Town to permanent location at Pambaimadu on the 1st August, 2011. The entire Vavuniya Campus would be housed in Pambaimadu location in the near future.

Cadres are regularly being filled. The Faculty encourages staff members to do their Ph.D.s abroad to keep the quality of staff on par with that of international standards. As far as new recruitments are concerned, staff are insisted by the Dean and relevant Heads to finish their Induction Program on time to assure that one of the requirements for getting confirmed in the service is fulfilled. SDC is actively functioning and conducting workshops and seminars to enhance the capacity of Faculty staff and students as well. Further, the capacity of staff is continuously upgraded via the performance evaluation by peer lecturers. The Faculty is equipped with the required infrastructure facilities so as to run the degree programs in a more robust way. Further, students actively use the internet lab facilities. The Faculty recognized that cloud learning is of utmost importance and took necessary steps to improve the learning experience of students via implementing LMS for almost all the batches. At present, the Faculty offers five BBM specialization degree programs with a recently launched degree program named BBM in Project Management. Students have to undergo an internship program consisting a period of six months in their final year so as to successfully finish their degree program.

The staff are provided with a wide array of facilities ranging from desktops, laptops, Wi-Fi and external hard drives. In addition, the Faculty gets the feedback from students through “Graduate Exit Survey” to get to know areas where the Faculty lacks and excels in. Students are provided with library facilities in the main Campus premises and the books in relevant disciplines are updated regularly to deliver the most recent knowledge. A separate internet lab facility is available for the students consisting of twenty computers. Almost all the PCs are powered by Windows 10™ along with the recent application software. The English Language Teaching Unit (ELTU) is functioning with two senior academics and the unit has now been changed as Department of English Language Teaching (DELT) with the gazette notification in December 2017. The Faculty ensures that the students are provided with enough training on soft skills through offering two subjects named Language for Integration and Career Guidance and Soft Skills Development. Promoting multi-cultural activities is imperative in a University where the students are from multi-ethnic groups. The Faculty encourages the students to have multi-cultural activities to promote harmony and cohesion among the students.

The faculty did not have the enrollment of the students with disabilities. However, the campus appointed and trained the students counselors to mentor the students in psychological welfare.	Senior Student counsellor and other student counsellors have been appointed for handling and guiding the students with disabilities. Summary

The Faculty of Business Studies has been offering different degree programmes for different periods of time since 1997. It initially introduced the three-year degree program of Bachelor of Accountancy and Finance. Later, it offered a Bachelor of Business Administration degree with two specializations: Management Studies and Accountancy & Finance. During the course of time, due to the need of a special degree, the faculty gave an option for students who had successfully completed the degree to follow one more year in relevant specialization and awarded the Special degree in Bachelor of Business Management. All these programmes followed the credit system. Later, all the faculties of National Universities were requested to follow GPA system instead of credit system. Then the faculty revised its curriculum in 2003 by incorporating the new system and introduced the Bachelor of Business Management degree by offering three specializations- Accounting & Finance, Marketing Management and Business Economics. The curriculum development committee had been actively involved to accommodate the above revisions.

Based on the Strategic Plan of the Campus and the Faculty, new degree programme had been introduced as per the demand of the job market. Further, the faculty regularized its curriculum then and there as per the standards of SLQF and SBS. In March 2007, the Subject Review teams visited the two departments of the faculty for review and the review teams submitted reports with positive comments and appreciations, even though, the faculty had lack of physical and human resources. As per the recommendation made by the teams, the faculty revised its curriculum and incorporated certain course units as per the current trend of the job market. The faculty considered in its revised curriculum which was presented by the Dean in 2009 at the Credit and Qualification Framework workshop organized by the QAA Council by incorporating the SBS-Management standards. The salient features of this curriculum had different exit points, more related course units for professional courses like CIMA, CMASL and SLIM and one full semester has been exclusively allocated for Students' Internship.

In addition, the faculty has a Curriculum Development Committee by accommodating experts in different disciplines internally as well as externally to mould a successful curriculum on a regular basis as per the SLQF recommendations. The faculty follows a proper channel to place the curricula in the Faculty Board, Campus Board, and Curriculum Evaluation Committee of the University, Senate and the Council for approval. The first undergraduate degree program in Project Management was ever introduced in Sri Lankan universities by the faculty is another success of the curriculum development committee. The faculty has been following the Quality Assurance practices since 2005 by having an Internal Quality Assurance Unit (IQAU) at the university level, represented by a member of each faculty. Currently, the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC) has been formed in each faculty and it organizes regular meetings in order to implement the best practices within the faculty. The IQAC contributes in developing, organizing and conducting the Students' feedback, Peer evaluation and Students centered learning, LMS, Presentations, Group discussions, Field visits, Debate and Role play. Though the faculty has limited academics, it has produced many graduates who excel in their professions in many organizations and pursue their postgraduate degrees.

Summary

The course design & development of the Faculty of Business Studies is done through the Curriculum Development Committee (CDC) with the involvement of subject lecturers, academic staff of respective departments and external subject experts from other Universities and professional bodies. Each subject lecturer is given his/her respective roles and responsibilities in the process of course design & development. The course units are designed to meet the program objectives and outcomes through the introduction of new course units in line with contemporary knowledge, revising the curriculum incorporating the updates. For this, at present, the faculty is offering the project study for the undergraduates and the dissertation and internship for the undergraduates who are following the honours degree in order to reflect the knowledge and current developments in the relevant field of study. The course units are designed in compliance with Sri Lanka Qualifications Framework and Subject Benchmark Statement. The Faculty uses the standardized format for course design, guidelines for project study/dissertations and guidelines for internship training and diary maintenance. Each course unit is designed in a manner that contains learning activities and assessment tasks which are systematically aligned with the course outcomes, which in turn, are aligned with the programme outcomes. Courses design of the faculty is based on student centered teaching and learning and outcomes based education strategies enabling the students to be actively engaged in their own learning through the continuous assessments, field visit report submission and presentations, lab practices, Project Report/ Dissertation and Internship.

At the beginning of the program, students are provided with the Students' Handbook (Prospectus), Detailed Lesson Plan for all Course Units which includes a concise description of the ILOs, contents, teaching learning and assessment strategies, learning resources and recommended readings. Courses are defined according to the weight of the subject (eg: 1 credit, 2 or 3 credits or non- credit) and volume of learning (eg: some courses are divided into two course units and are offered in different semesters in a manner that allows the students to complete them within the intended period of time. Courses are designed adequately representing concepts, theories, models, applications, cases, and real world examples while assuring that courses can be successfully completed within the planned time. Lecture halls are equipped with multimedia, mike system and internet access and students are advised to access the LMS. The staff involved in instructional design and development have been trained through the meetings organized by the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the faculty and department meetings.

The Faculty uses financial resources for course design, monitoring and review process through the allocation of funds by the finance committee. Course approval decisions are taken through the Curriculum Revision Committee and External experts. Relevant staff members are made aware of the criteria through the regular department meeting and the Faculty Board. Regular course evaluation, course design improvements and developments are undertaken through the Internal Quality Assurance Cell of the faculty. Courses and effectiveness of teaching are evaluated at the end of each course through the Students' feedback and Peer evaluation of Lecturers.

Summary

Assessment of student learning has a central role in both programme design and in the learning environment of the student. During the programme design, Faculty of Business Studies (FBS) adapts rigorous assessment procedures and strategies to maintain standards of performance as prescribed in the Sri Lankan Quality Frame work. These assessment procedures and strategies is considered as an integral part of the programmme design with clear relationship between assessment tasks and programme ILOs. All the FBS's existing programmes ensure that University's Regulations, Rules, By-laws and guidance on assessment procedures are explicit, and consistent while ensuring confidentiality and integrity.

The FBS also perform reviews and amends assessment strategies and regulations periodically as appropriate and ensures those being fit for purpose. The updated assessment policies, regulations, and processes are made accessible to all stakeholders including students, academic staff, administrative staff, internal and external examiners. For example, student assessment and reward methods are available in the Faculty prospectus which is issued to students in the inauguration ceremony for the First-year students. This prospectus consists all the details of the curriculum, assessment methods, grading system and examination regulations which are fulling the UGC requirements as well as Sri Lankan Quality Frame work. When it comes to the students learning environment, the FBS enables assessment as a tool to promote students learning to enhance students' academic development. The FBS's assessment strategies are linked to the ILOs and assessment practices are fair, valid, reliable, and feasible with provision for regular and prompt feedback on student progress. Information about assessment, including ILOs, assessment strategies, processes, methods and schedule of assessment tasks, and criteria for assessment is published in print and online and communicated to all students. This enable students to provide evidence of achieving the ILOs.

Student Assessment and reward methods are available in the Faculty prospectus which is issued to students in the inauguration ceremony for the First-year students. It is consisting all the details of the curriculum, assessment methods, grading system and examination regulations which are fulling the UGC requirements as well as Sri Lankan Quality Frame work. Various assessments methods are mentioning in the prospectus under each course unit to achieve the intended graduate profile of our students. Curriculum of BBM and Project management has been revised in 2017 / 2018 to incorporate the updated version of SLQF. Further, Faculty did not receive any examination marking laps to consider in the examination board from external examiners yet. Moreover, we wish to note that UGC is not sending any disabled students for our degree programme so far.

Summary

The innovative and healthy practices of the faculty lead to the enhancement of the quality of training and learning experience and the students’ outlook. The FBS has established the operations of ICT-based platform (LMS) to facilitate multi-mode teaching delivery and learning. The FBS encourages the staff and students to use OER to supplement teaching and learning through collaborations, research and teaching methods. In addition, FBS recognizes complementarity between academic training, research and development (R&D), innovations, and industry engagement as core duties of academics. FBS established coordinating and facilitating mechanisms for fostering research and innovation and promoting community and industry engagement. FBS has successfully implemented reward system to encourage academics for achieving excellence in research and outreach activities though implementing the reward scheme and filling the best research papers and keeping all in personal files.

Importantly, the study programme contains a research project as a part of the teaching and learning strategy and encourages students to disseminate the findings. Since the study programme contains an undergraduate research project as a part of the teaching and learning strategy, guidelines for research and projects study, records of all research and project study reports of pass out students are maintained for the future students’ reference purposes. The study programme contains an ‘industrial’ attachment/training as a part of the teaching and learning strategy; it is operationalized through formal agreements with ‘industrial’ establishments/organizations. By linkages with industries and offering internships programmes for students this can be fulfilled.

FBS has established and operationalized strong links with various agencies and industries. FBS promotes students and staff engagement in a wide variety of co-curricular activities such as social, cultural and aesthetic pursuits and so on. FBS also encourages student participation by giving rewards for the best performance, collaboration with other institutions and giving awareness program to students to instruct about rewarding system in faculty prospects. In addition, the academic standards of the study programme are assured through regular revision of the curriculum, close monitoring of its implementation and use of external examiners for moderation and second marking. FBS implements a mechanism for the students who do not complete the programme successfully to exit at a lower level with a diploma / higher diploma/three-year degree depending on the level of attainment.
