WELL WISHES FROM THE DEAN

I am pleased to send a congratulatory message to the Project Management Club's Project Management Day. I appreciate the efforts of project management students to commemorate project management day with various events, competitions, cultural programs, and launch leaflet and reminiscence. The Reminiscence will recall the past memories of our project management students and this will make all of our current students meet our former students and develop a close relationship with them.

The Project Management Club was recently established at the faculty, however, before it was a year old, it held many events such as webinars, photography contests, community awareness programs, and contributed to various faculty development projects.

I congratulate the president, the executive committee and all the members of the PM club for hosting PM day and issuing this first reminiscence.

Dr. Y.Nanthagopan
Dean / Faculty of Business Studies
University of Vavuniya

FELICITATIONS BY THE HEAD OF DEPARTMENT

International Project Management Day is celebrated every year on the first Thursday in the month of November. In 2021, it was observed on November 4. The International Project Management Day or IPM Day is designed to encourage project-based organizations worldwide or companies who utilize project management methodologies to program some type of recognition event within their organizations or organize locally with others to demonstrate the appreciation for the achievements of project managers and their teams. It earns lots of appreciation that the PM Club of the University of Vavuniya decided to mark the IPM Day in January 2022 due to the then-ongoing examinations in November last year. My hope is the PM Club will celebrate its second IPM Day celebrations this year in November first Thursday.

As the pioneer in the Project Management Degree program in a state university of our country, it is most appropriate to celebrate International Project Management Day at the Faculty of Business Studies of the University of Vavuniya. I offer my sincere gratitude and greetings to Dr. Y. Nanthagopan, Senior Lecturer in Project Management and Dean of the Faculty of Business Studies, for his brainchild PM Degree program through his visionary thoughts; to Ms. S. Mathivathany, Senior Lecturer in Project Management, for her untiring efforts and guidance for the uprising of the PM Club; and to the first PM Club's Executive Committee for their sincere commitment for the actions to bring the PM Club to the top.

The successful journey of the PM Club has already begun and I congratulate the Executive Committee of the PM Club and Project Management students for all their devoted efforts for celebrating IPM Day and for releasing its first Newsletter and extending my heartfelt best wishes for its continuous success.

Mr. S. N. V. S. Thirugnanasampanthar
Head
Department of Project Management
Faculty of Business Studies
University of Vavuniya

THOUGHTS BY THE SENIOR ADVISOR

I'm overjoyed to see Project Management Club's "Pages of Reminiscences" of last year's students being published. The university is a period of excitement, healthy competition, fearing, adjusting, sharing, and love, as well as the first contact with the world. The university is not defined by its wide-open spaces, lecture rooms, libraries, playgrounds, extracurricular fields, labs, or huge fields. The greatest joy comes from putting your feelings into action.

Without a doubt, this booklet will aid in the connection of students from various locations, religious and cultural backgrounds, as well as the strengthening of student relationships. This booklet is very useful because it contains the students' names, phone numbers, email addresses, and dates of birth.

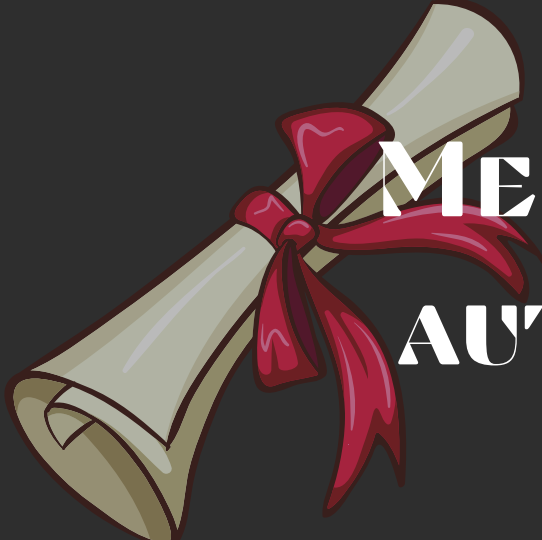

I am certain that this booklet will aid in future communication and professional prospects.

I extend my heartfelt thanks and best wishes to the Outgoing and graduating project management students.

"With heartfelt greetings and God's blessings"

Mrs.S.Mathivathany
Senior Lecturer
Department of Project Management
Faculty of Business Studies
University of Vavuniya

MESSAGE FROM AUTHOR HEART

It isn't the years,
It isn't the tears
That makes life worthwhile.
It's the memories that grew
And the people you knew
That will bring back a smile.

Mistakes that were made,
Plans often mislaid
Are a part of the past.
What you've kept in your mind
Is where you will find
What you wished to hold fast.

Some things in life
May be had without strife.
It can happen that way.
Still, a friendship is earned,
And where love is concerned,
I'm willed to say.

When life draws to a close,
Let me be one of those
To cry, "Life has been great!"
It's the friends that were made,
Those who lived unafraid.
That is proof of the world we create

Miss.S. Priyadharshini

Life of Undergraduates

We are the undergraduates of everyday,
From the first morning yawn
To the time we merge the freeway;
From the moment we harvest a lesson
Like a daffodil that waits to be picked
To the last lullaby we sing to our dog
Needing recharged energy the next day.

We are the scholars experimenting,
Proving theories of love, until we realize
It is a singular life after all;
Or maybe, we are discovering heroes,
Until we realize the preachers of good
Know what evil truly means,
Disguising themselves in hypocrisy,
Needing followers so not to feel alone.

We are the apprentices of the world,
From the time we pick up
The dreaded newspaper
To the time we watch late night news,
Until we start snoozing, snoring,
Then waking up to the next chapter
Of countless lectures, seminars,
Tutorials to digest.

Mr. Crayan Bandara

Destiny

Life is a creation
A creation of meetings and departures...
Without meet we cannot depart...
Devoid of a departure there is no meet up again...

So...I have got to leave...
Flowers be required to wither...
But...

A River be supposed to pour...
Forms, ought to return after kissing the shore
So...I am leaving now...

But..
Not like an attender...
Just...like a stranger!

CONCLUDING THOUGHTS

Miss you Guys!

Though it's only been a short while,
I've never had a friend like you,
But soon you will be leaving me,
And I don't know what to do.
Your love and understanding
Have brought me new hope.
I wish that I could keep you here,
Tied to me with a rope.
Why do you choose to leave me?
I ask with confusion and pain.
Don't let me go back to feeling alone.
When will I see you again?
The miles soon stretched between us.
What will happen to this bond?
Will we reunite to find
That this special tie is gone?
So many questions I have.
My heart filled with fear,
Dreading you will leave me
And never shed a tear,
Unlike this desperate aching
In my heart that won't let go,
This leads me now to tell you
Something you must know

The friendship you have given me,
The joy you bring my soul
Has filled me with such strength
And love once unfortold.
How can it be so short?
This time we've spent together.
I thought you would remain here
And love me 'til forever.
Sadly, wishful thinking
As I now have come to see,
But remember please this thought
When you think of me.
We may soon be separated,
But I'll remember just the same.
Forever in my heart
Is where you will remain.
I wish that when you leave
We'd remain the best of friends.
You'll be in my thoughts
"Till I see you again.
How can I say goodbye?
No words, just tears fall
From my eyes and sobbing heart
That knows you after all.
The hours spent together
Will soon dwindle down to few,
Forcing me to let go
And start this year anew
Without you here to talk to.
Searching for a friendly face
That knows all too well
They can never be replaced

NOTE OF GRATITUDE

First of all, I would like to thank Mrs. S. Mathivathany, the senior lecturer in Project Management for giving us the idea to make this book. I would also like to thank Dr. Y. Nanthagopan, the Dean of the Faculty of Business Studies and Mr. S. Thirugnanasampanthar, the Head of the Department of Project Management for giving your approval for this innovative idea. I specially thank my colleagues in the Project Management second batch for allocating time from your hectic work schedule to provide details and creative ideas for this book. Apart from that, this book would not be a success without the designing and editing work of our two students, Ms. P.R. Gunawardana and Ms. D.U.S. Bandara who worked till late at night to make it much more attractive. Therefore, I extend my heartfelt gratitude for the two of them. Finally, I thank all the other persons who supported in making our new idea into a reality
