MESSAGE FROM DEAN/FACULTY OF BUSINESS STUDIES

On this significant occasion of the 2024 International Project Management Day, it is with great pleasure and pride that I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the Project Management Club and the Department of Project Management at the University of Vavuniya on the launch of Volume 3 of our esteemed newsletter, PM Gallery. This newsletter stands as a testament to the remarkable achievements and relentless dedication of our Project Management Club and its members. It encapsulates the outstanding accomplishments of our students and the transformative projects that have not only elevated our club's profile but also enriched our academic and professional community.

The Project Management Club has consistently demonstrated excellence through innovative initiatives, impactful projects, and collaborative efforts. Volume 3 of PM Gallery vividly highlights these successes, offering a glimpse into the dynamic and thriving environment within our Department of Project Management. It showcases the hard work, creativity, and leadership that our students bring to every project they undertake.

As the Dean of the Faculty of Business Studies, I am immensely proud of the progress and contributions made by our Project Management students and faculty. Their commitment to excellence aligns with the core values of our faculty and the broader goals of our university. The PM Gallery serves not only as a record of these achievements but also as an inspiration for future endeavors.

I encourage everyone to read through this latest edition of PM Gallery to fully appreciate the extraordinary efforts and successes of our Project Management Club. Their journey reflects the essence of what we strive for at the University of Vavuniya a blend of academic rigor, practical application, and a forward-thinking approach to project management.

Congratulations to all involved in this incredible achievement. May the stories and successes shared in this newsletter continue to inspire and drive excellence within our department and beyond.

Warmest Regards,
Professor Y.Nanthagopan
Dean, Faculty of Business Studies
University of Vavuniya

MESSAGE FROM HEAD/DEPARTMENT OF PROJECT MANAGEMENT

It is with great excitement and pride that I announce the launch of Volume 3 of PM Gallery, our Department of Project Management's flagship newsletter. This launch coincides with the 2024 International Project Management Day, a fitting occasion to celebrate the remarkable achievements and ongoing contributions of our Project Management Club and students.

PM Gallery Volume 3 is more than just a newsletter; it is a showcase of the innovative spirit, dedication, and excellence that define our Project Management Club. Within its pages, you will find a rich tapestry of stories highlighting the club's successful projects, student accomplishments, and the collective efforts that have driven our department forward. This edition reflects the hard work and commitment of our students, who continue to push the boundaries of what is possible in project management. Their achievements, whether through impactful projects or collaborative initiatives, exemplify the core values and mission of our department.

I would like to extend my deepest gratitude to the Project Management Club for their tireless efforts in compiling and presenting this newsletter. Their ability to highlight both individual and collective successes serves as an inspiration and a reminder of the incredible talent and potential within our department.

As we celebrate this launch on International Project Management Day, let us take a moment to recognize and applaud the contributions of everyone involved. PM Gallery Volume 3 not only chronicles our past successes but also sets the stage for future achievements.

Thank you to all who have supported and participated in the creation of this newsletter. May the stories shared in these pages motivate us to continue striving for excellence and innovation in all our endeavors.

Congratulations to the Project Management Club and our exceptional students for making this milestone possible.

Warm Regards,
Ms.S.Mathivathany
Head, Department of Project Management
University of Vavuniya

MESSAGE FROM SENIOR ADVISOR

Greetings Everyone!

I am glad to be the Senior Treasurer of the Project Management Club, an elite student club of the FBS. First of all, I thank the Former Senior Treasurer of the Project Management Club, Ms. S. Mathivathany, Senior Lecturer in Project Management and present Head of the Department of Project Management. Further, the PM Club has done a great job as a typical undergraduate student club at a higher education institution.

The world has been becoming to be a Project Economy, creating a significant demand for individuals with Project Management competencies. The success or failure of a project will directly impact the success or failure of an economy. Therefore, it's crucial for graduates to have practical exposure to Project Management. The activities of the PMC play a vital role in helping undergraduates develop both their hard and soft competencies, making it an invaluable resource for all students.

As the Senior Advisor of the Project Management Club, I am committed to its continuous growth and success. I encourage all PM undergraduates to take full advantage of the PMC for their competency development through active participation.

Warm Regards,
Mr. S. Thirugnanasampanthar
Senior Treasurer & Advisor
Senior Lecturer in Project Management
Department of Project Management,
Faculty of Business Studies.

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT – PMC

As the President of our Project Management Club, it is my great pleasure to contact you with our Project Management Day Newsletter.

This opportunity is a reminder of the central role that project management plays in shaping the success of organizations worldwide. It is a day where we celebrate our achievements, share knowledge and inspire each other to reach new level in our fields. For years, our club has been a sign of knowledge and collaboration, fostering a community where professionals and enthusiasts come together to exchange ideas and best practices. Through such joint efforts, we continue to evolve and innovate in the platform of project management.

On this day, we reflect with pride on our past achievements and look forward to future challenges with perseverance and determination. Together, we can continue to make a meaningful contribution to our organizations and communities through effective project management practices. I encourage all of you to actively participate in the events and discussions organised by the Project Management club. Let's take this opportunity to learn from each other and strengthen our commitment to excellence.

Thank you for your continuous support and dedication to project management field as well the club. Here's to a successful project management day and many more milestones ahead!

Best Regards,
Mr. W.G.R.C Gunarathna,

SOCIAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT (SIA) FOR PROJECTS

The Project Management Club organized a highly insightful session on "Social Impact Assessment for Projects" on 26th July 2023. The event featured Mr. Thevarajah Krishnarajah, a renowned Community Development and Social Safeguard Expert, Senior Social Officer, and Gender Expert. The session aimed to create awareness about the importance of social impact assessment in project management and its significance in promoting sustainable and socially responsible initiatives.

The event commenced with a warm welcome address by the Project Management Club, expressing gratitude to Mr. Krishnarajah for gracing the occasion as the esteemed resource person. The attendees, comprising students, Dean and PM staff members, were introduced to the objectives of the session.

Mr. Krishnarajah began the session by providing an in-depth overview of Social Impact Assessment (SIA). He explained that SIA is a systematic process of identifying, predicting, and evaluating the potential social impacts of a proposed project or policy on the affected communities and stakeholders. The main focus of SIA is to ensure that the project's benefits outweigh any potential negative social consequences.

Fundraising Activity

“Showing the Thoovanam movie to students, staff, and outside people.”

As the Project Management Club of the Faculty of Business Studies, University of Vavuniya, we enter into our fundraising activity by showing Thoovanam, a Srilankan Tamil movie, to university students, staff, and outside people as well in order to raise funds for our project management club's future activities. For that, we got tickets from the team of that movie, and we sold them out to university students, staff, and outside people.

For university people:-

1. Venue- Applied science faculty smart lecture hall
2. Time- 2.15PM

For outside people:-

1. Venue- Amudha theater Vavuniya
2. Time- 6PM

Thoovanam is a Sri Lankan Tamil film directed by Dr. Shivasuthan, and all the cast and crew of this movie are from Sri Lanka. This movie covers the Sri Lankan Tamil people's traditions and culture and all other good things. As a project management club, we intended to raise social awareness among students and other people by showing this movie. At the university, there were 50 staff members and 250 students came to watch this movie in the applied science faculty smart hall at 2.15 pm, and 119 outside people came to the Amudha Theater to watch this movie in the evening show. We successfully completed this fund-raising activity with earnings of 50,500 LKR from tickets and selling beverages and snacks inside and outside the university.

What does SMART stand for?

S
Specific

Make your goal specific & narrow for more effective planning.

M
Measurable

Make sure your goal & progress are measurable.

A
Achievable

Make sure you can reasonably accomplish your goal within a certain time frame.

R
Relevant

Your goal should align with your values & long-term objectives.

T
Time

Set a realistic but ambitious end date to clarify task prioritisation & increase motivation.

First, have a definite, clear practical goal, an objective.
Second, have the necessary means to achieve your ends: wisdom, money, materials, and methods.
Third, adjust all your means to that end.
